CeoTronics AG: Major tender won by CeoTronics France

CeoTronics wins major tender from French Ministry of Defense for gendarmerie / Total tender volume approx. EUR1,200 thousand to approx. EUR4,200 thousand / Motorcycle helmets with built-in communication systems will be supplied

CeoTronics AG Audio Video Data Communication, Adam-Opel-Strasse 6, 63322 Rödermark, Germany, listed in the PRIME Standard and the Technology All Share Index (ISIN: DE0005407407), has won the tender from the French Ministry of Defense for the gendarmerie in France.

Within the next four years, between 2,500 and 7,500 Nolan motorcycle helmets with CeoTronics communication systems will be released. The unit prices are dependent on the release volume, and the total volume in euros of the tender won by CeoTronics will be calculated on the basis of the total number of helmets purchased.

Issuer's information/explanatory remarks concerning this ad hoc announcement:

"The first release is scheduled for calendar year 2005. In the case that releases take place in unusually short intervals, or that release volumes result in revenue being concentrated in a particular fiscal year, this development will be published", said Thomas H. Günther, Chairman of the Board of Management.
